RE: Petition to Accept Unintentionally Delayed Payment of Maintenance Fee for Expired Patent No.: US 6,367,874 Multi-Functional Furniture Dated Apr. 9, 2002 (the "Multi-Functional Furniture Patent").

To whom it may concern:

Please accept the enclosed two checks in the amount of: (i) $1985.00 for Maintenance Fees, and (ii) $1,640.00 for surcharge (totaling $ 3,630.00) in payment of the following maintenance fees and surcharge due for the Multi-Functional Furniture Patent referenced above:

- | | |
|--|-----------|
| 1. Small Entity Fee Due at 3.5 years pursuant to 37 CFR 1.20(e) | $ 565.00 |
| 2. Small Entity Fee Due at 7.5 years pursuant to 37 CFR 1.20(f) | 1,420.00 |
| 3. Surcharge After Expiration for unintentional late payment pursuant to 37 CFR 1.20(i)(2) | 1,640.00 |

Total: $ 3,630.00
(the "Payment Due")

Also enclosed with this letter are:

1. Form of Petition to Accept Unintentionally Delayed Payment of Maintenance Fee in an Expired Patent (37 CFR 1.378(c)); and
2. Mr. Casini's letter describing his circumstance and detrimental reliance on his belief that his Multi-Functional Furniture Patent was in good standing (the "Casini Letter").

Summary

Mr. Casini, a 75 year old master craftsman and designer, has only a 5th grade education. Despite this lack of a formal education, he was able to obtain the Multi-Functional Furniture Patent without the benefit of legal counsel on April 9, 2002 and until December of 2011 he was not aware that maintenance fees were required or that his patent had, in fact, expired. (See Attached Casini Letter) Mr. Casini discovered the need to request reinstatement of the Multi-Functional Furniture Patent when potential investors began their due diligence regarding Mr. Casini's invention. These potential investors remain interested in exploring a business arrangement with Mr. Casini upon reinstatement of the Multi-Functional Furniture Patent.

Mr. Casini understands that pursuant to 37 CFR 1.378 the patent office is not obligated to reinstate the Multi-Functional Furniture Patent. However, we are hopeful the United States Patent Office in the interest of fairness, agrees that the reinstatement of Mr. Casini's patent is warranted. The compelling circumstances, outlined in the attached Casini Letter include that:

1. With the determination and passion he has for his Multi-Functional Furniture invention, Mr. Casini was able to obtain his patent in 2002 despite educational and circumstantial hurdles. (see attached Casini Letter);
2. In the past two years, Mr. Casini has used what little savings he had to manufacture prototypes of his invention and to otherwise reach out to secure investors; (see attached Casini Letter);

3. He has found potential investors who believe in his product, and
4. As, neither this product, nor anything similar to it, has been brought to market by anyone else, consequently, reinstating the Multi-Functional Furniture Patent would have no negative economic effect on others.

In light of the foregoing, and of Mr. Casini's sincere belief that he followed all the rules required of him, we are hopeful that the United States Patent Office will agree with our contention that the greater good is achieved by accepting the enclosed check for $3,630 and reinstating the Multi-Functional Furniture Patent to Mr. Casini.

I have prepared this letter of transmittal at Mr. Casini's request as a family friend and am also available to answer any questions should that be of assistance in making your determination. I can be reached at 303-588-4367. Mr. Casini can be reached at 718-755-6067.

To Whom ever Reads This

I Francesco Casini inventor of Multi Use Children Furniture Pat # 6 367 874 B2 have spent The last 16 years in getting a Patent and getting my Invention to Market.

I followed all the Rules. First I Tried to get a Patent on my own, I abandon my effort when I realized I lacked a good understanding of the English Language so after saving enough I took the PTO advice and hired a Patent Attorney (Bad choice) 4 years later and down to my final submittal, his two or three previous submittal had been denied, I called the PTO Examiner to find out

* I was very worked what the Progress on my Patent, was told I was down to my final submittal which was less then Two months away and so far he had not recieved it. I asked the Examiner for help he explained he could not as I had and Attorney he could only help me if I did not have and Attorney. Up until now all his efforts had been denied and if his final submission was denied I could not apply using the same application. I no longer had confidence in my Attorney and did not have the money to hire another Attorney nor the Trust. My discision was to send a letter to my Attorney and a copy to the PTO Examiner releasing my Attorney from any further involvement in Pat # 6 367 874 B2 And with the help of the PTO Examiner was able to Recieve Patent to this day I can't ~~did it~~ believe I did it. I found out later my ex Attorney had sent his last submission IT was denied. When I Recieved the notice of approuale I took it out of the envelope I saw the Ribbon I did not think to read the cover open the booklet saw my name put it back in the envelope and put it away. Since I no longer had and Attorney I had consideration of 5743 and advise 2012 About the maintenance fee

And when to pay it I Like most people believed that once Awarded, was yours for Twenty years with Government protection. I did not receive the Notice of missed maintenance Payment since I had moved from the Address Oct 2004 and I have ^{just} found out The PTO had sent the missed payment notice May 2006 I believe the Post Office stop forwarding after one year so I never receive the Notice I never Notice the one line on the cover of the Award Booklet, they should put a cover letter explaining maint. You just don't Notice one line in the excitement of receiving it I am 75 years old just finishing Chemo. I don't think I am going to get another chance at this. Last year I invested almost ten thousand Dollars in taking my product to the Las Vegas Furniture Trade Show. So between my medical bills my Product development I am just about broke All I ever wanted was to get my Product to Market (I have an interested investor) and leave something for my children. All I ask is Fairness in your decision

Respectfully Yours

Francesco Casini
